

Transbaikalia. Khasurta

Description

Bronze knife was found in Khorinskiy district, Buryatia, on arable land near Khasurta village, in the valley of the Khasurta river. The item was given to the Museum of Buryat History in 1997 by Mansurov A.

Publications

Grishin YU.S. Pamyatniki neolita, bronzovogo i rannego zheleznogo vekov lesostepnogo Zabajkal'ya. M.: Nauka, 1981, 204 S.

Transbaikalia. Khasurta. Ring knife (bronze)

Description

A bronze ringed single blade knife with a thickened convex head slightly lowered to the end of the blade. The tip is blunted and smoothly bent up. The handle is double-sided convex, divided from the blade by the pointed spike. The handle is also ornamented from two sides with three short transverse lines-rollers and one median longitudinal roller.

Manufacturing technique

Casting

Storage location

The Museum of Buryat History named after Khangalov M.N.

Inventory number

17943

Size

Length - 333,37 mm

Width (point area) - 29,05 mm

Thickness (head) - 9,45 mm

Outer diameter of the ring - 27,95 mm

Inner diameter of the ring - 18,43 mm

Material

Bronze

Dating

VII-VI cent. BC

Culture

Karasuk - earlier Tagar

The author of the excavations

Fortuitous find (from Mansurov A.T.)

Publications

Grishin YU.S. Pamyatniki neolita, bronzovogo i rannego zheleznogo vekov lesostepnogo Zabajkal'ya. M.: Nauka, 1981, 204 S.

Description authors: T. Rostiazhenko, A. Simukhin, L. Lbova